

Congratulations to our essay winners! Three of our 8th graders wrote on "The Importance of Religious Freedom": Quentin Fairchild, Jenna Kotschessa, and Case Williams. The three students delivered their essays as speeches and did a good job expressing their viewpoints. We greatly appreciate the Knights of Columbus support of Catholic education here at St. Francis.

